

READ HOW WE READ NOW

a poem by 2J – Mrs. Jakobsen's second grade

We read here.

We read there.

We can read anywhere.

We can read in China.

We can read in Spain.

We can read with our friends.

We can read on a plane.

We can read in bed.

We can read in school.

We can read in our head.

We can read at the pool.

We can read in a boat.

We can read in the hall.

We can read in a race car.

We can read in the mall.

We can read with a cat.
We can read with a dog.
We can read with a tall hat.
We can read on a log.

We can read in a box.
We can read with a fox.
And if we want,
We can read with a gox.

We can learn about places.
We can learn about bees.
We can learn about faces.
We can learn about trees.

We can travel to Australia.
We can travel to Peru
We can travel to places.
We can travel with you.
