

Oh The Places I Go!

Oh the places I go
When I open a book.
I leave all my troubles,
Just take a look!

It was the witch hour
When the big giant grabbed me.
A good team we made,
When I realized, "He's friendly!"

I found myself next
On a farm where cows moo.
I watched a kind spider,
A pig named Wilbur too!

Then I'm running from those witches
Dashing-dodging from their feet.
Looking for my grandma,
Before I become mouse meat!

Wayside school is wacky
That's where I am now.
With Louis and Miss Jewels,
On the 30th floor –WOW!

The people I've met
From page to page,
From slithering snakes
To bears that rage...

Oh the places I've been
When I opened these books...
Can you guess all these places?
Just take a look!
